

Bigger is not better. Both radio and television have suffered from the FCC's decision to allow consolidation. If the airwaves truly belong in the public domain with good governance guiding that domain, then require Sinclair Broadcasting to offer equal time to John Kerry's campaign. Smears like this program alleges to be, a part of the new McCarthyism that is alive in this nation. I lived through Joe McCarthy I, we do not need a re-run. Please put politics aside and come down on the side of fairness
